

Mr. Hanibal Yacoub

Mr. Hanibal Yacoub was born in March 02, 1970 in Qamishli, Syria. He has attended during one to the University of Aleppo while studying Economy. Later on he migrated to Switzerland and he had continued his study at the University of Fribourg by continuing in other field as Theology. He studied at the University of Freiburg five years.

Hanibal Yacoub continued his works and efforts at the service of Syriac people by advancing their cause in different countries across Middle East and in the European countries. During his missions in the Middle East countries, he worked and managed various tasks by managing works, being active at the formation and representation of the political parties in Iraq and Syria by defending the core rights by different actors. Hanibal Yacoub had been active at the different platforms, meetings and consultations regarding the future of Syriac people. Furthermore he represents the stabilisation needs of the Syriac people in the Democratic Self-Administration

Contact information: h-yacoub@hotmail.com