The Ties Between NGOs promoting BDS and Terrorist Organizations

Report No. 1:

How terrorists came to hold key positions in NGOs promoting the Boycott Divestment and Sanction (BDS) campaign against the State of Israel; and how, through these NGOs, they exploit Western governmental funding, philanthropic foundations, financial platforms and civil society to advance their goal of dismantling the State of Israel.

MAIN FINDINGS

BDS: A Complementary Track to Terrorism

1. Over the past several years, an organized and well-coordinated campaign to delegitimize the State of Israel and promote the BDS campaign against it has been taking place around the world, primarily in Western countries.
2. The campaign involves a network of non-governmental organizations, a number of which have close ties to designated terrorist organizations, most-prominently Hamas and the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine (PFLP). Terrorist organizations see the “civilian” struggle against Israel – demonstrations, marches, fundraising, political lobbying and the so-called “peace” flotillas – as a complementary effort of their armed attacks against the State of Israel.
3. This approach is an evolutionary development in the tactics of the terror organizations against the State of Israel. The terror groups have realized that armed conflict is not achieving its objective and is perceived as illegitimate by the majority of Western society. As a result, Hamas and PFLP operatives have infiltrated and adopted seemingly benign NGOs in the Palestinian Authority, Europe, North America and South Africa, for the purpose of advancing their ideological goal: the elimination of the State of Israel as the nation-state of the Jewish people. Moreover, it appears that terrorist organizations view NGOs in the West as a convenient means for raising funds which they could not otherwise obtain.
4. How does this system work? Convicted terrorist operatives who have served prison sentences currently hold senior positions in NGOs which delegitimize and promote the BDS campaign against Israel. In these positions, they recruit fellow terrorist operatives to their NGOs. Israeli courts have determined that some of the terrorist operatives listed in this report pose a concrete security threat.
5. Concealing ties to terrorist organizations has often led Western authorities, especially in Europe, to view former and current terrorist operatives and the NGOs of which they are part of as legitimate civil society actors. In this context, European parliamentarians have met with convicted terrorists for the purpose of advocating the release of Palestinian security prisoners, including those convicted of terrorism for murdering civilians, as well as for the purpose of advancing boycotts against the State of Israel.

6. This report aims to expose the terrorists working for the anti-Israel BDS campaign, and reveal their methods and actions. The State of Israel calls upon Western countries, financial institutions, NGOs, and private philanthropic foundations to examine the activities of such NGOs and activists and terminate any funding granted to them.
7. In a series of recent research reports, the Ministry of Strategic Affairs exposed the deep ties between the BDS (Boycott, Divestment, Sanctions) campaign and Palestinian terrorist organizations. These reports reveal the aim of those who claim to promote a legitimate, non-violent campaign against the State of Israel.
8. In the first stage, a thorough review identified the 42 leading NGOs out of the nearly 300 organizations internationally which promote the delegitimization of, and the BDS campaign against, the State of Israel. The review showed that these organizations act as a network, with the various NGOs working closely together. Now, this report reveals an additional layer of ties – between terrorist organizations and NGOs in the Palestinian Authority, the Gaza Strip, the UK, Belgium, South Africa and the US. These ties appear in different forms: in the form of individuals who are active in both an NGO and a terror organization, in the form of joint public campaigns and in the form of financial ties.
9. This report is based on a variety of sources, including English and Arabic online sources, as well as social media accounts of terrorist organizations, BDS -promoting NGOs and key activists. It also includes information published by the Israel Security Agency (also known as the Shin Bet, hereinafter: ISA), as well as indictments and court decisions in terrorism cases and other reliable sources of information. For the purpose of readability, this study does not adhere to strict transliteration rules from Arabic.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1. This report presents dozens of examples of significant ties between activists in NGOs, which delegitimize and promote boycotts of Israel, and Hamas and the PFLP. Hamas and the PFLP are designated terrorist organizations in the European Union, the US and Israel. These ties manifest themselves in the form of activists who were terrorists in the past and some even in the present, and who currently fill key positions in such NGOs; in joint activities and campaigns against the State of Israel; and in financial assistance to one another.
2. Ideologically, both terrorist organizations and NGOs which delegitimize Israel do not accept the right of Israel to exist as a Jewish and democratic state, and oppose any normalization between Israel and its neighbors. This shared ideology manifests itself in ties between organizations. Namely, the Palestinian BDS National Committee (BNC) which leads the international boycott movement, is comprised of 28 Palestinian organizations, foremost amongst them is the Palestinian National and Islamic Forces (PNIF), which include Hamas, the PFLP, and the Palestinian Islamic Jihad all designated terror organizations.
3. This report has found that numerous members and terrorist operatives have become leading figures in NGOs which delegitimize and promote boycotts against Israel, while concealing or downplaying their terrorist past. Some continue to serve as members of terrorist organizations to this day. Thus, members of Palestinian, North American and British NGOs which delegitimize Israel, present themselves as human rights activists, while withholding any mention of their ties to terrorist organizations.

For example:

- A. Mustapha Awad – a PFLP operative trained by Hezbollah, who was recently sentenced by Israel to one year in prison for transferring funds between countries for terrorists and maintaining ties with terror organizations . Awad is an activist in the North American-based NGO Samidoun, which works in close coordination with the PFLP for the release of imprisoned Palestinian terrorists and supports the BDS campaign.

- B. Muhammad Sawalha – a former operative of the military wing of Hamas and in recent years a member of Hamas' political bureau and its representative in the UK. Sawalha maintains ties with Hamas and in 2017 participated in a senior Hamas delegation to Russia. Sawalha is deeply involved in the BDS campaign and anti-Israel activities in the UK, including establishing and leading a number of NGOs which, amongst other things, promote the BDS.
- C. Leila Khaled – a terrorist who hijacked TWA Flight 840 in 1969, and attempted a second airplane hijacking in 1970, who continues to maintain active ties to terrorists. These ties include coordinating between a PFLP command center in Syria and operatives in Jerusalem planning lethal attacks against Israelis. Khaled is a well-known figure in the BDS movement, even fundraising for the main BDS organization in South Africa (see below).
- D. Salah Khawaja – a former PFLP operative and current member of the Palestinian National and Islamic Forces, as well as being a BNC secretariat member. His most recent conviction was in 2016, when he was sentenced to one-year for training and maintaining contact with a hostile entity.
- E. Khalida Jarrar – a senior operative in the PFLP and former director and deputy director of the board at the Ramallah-based NGO, Addameer.
- F. Shawan Jabarin – a former senior PFLP operative who served, cumulatively, several years in prison. Jabarin is the General Director of Al-Haq, a Palestinian NGO which promotes BDS. Jabarin, who was described by the Israeli Supreme court in 2007 as “Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde” in light of his dual roles in an NGO and in a terrorist organization, has recruited other PFLP members to Al-Haq.
4. The preponderance of information shows that this is a premeditated, coordinated and organized modus operandi of the terrorist organizations, which seek to “whitewash” their end-goal of eliminating the State of Israel by hiding behind the façade of “legitimate” human rights NGOs, primarily operating in the Palestinian Authority, the UK and the US.
5. This method is another evolution in the tactics employed by terrorist organizations to attack the State of Israel by exploiting Western values. It derives from their realization that in today's day and age, civil society has a significant ability to influence democratic governments. In their eyes, the path to mainstream acceptance requires adopting “legitimate” methods of action. As a result, terrorist organizations have embraced a new approach, at the basis of which is waging a campaign against Israel in the public opinion and legal arenas, while cynically and deliberately exploiting human rights NGOs perceived in the West as “legitimate.” To our understanding, terrorist organizations hope that in this way, they will co-opt civil society to push their governments to place pressure on Israel, with the aim of curtailing its military and economic freedom of action.

6. Moreover, from the perspective of the terrorist organizations, building ties with civil society in the West creates an opportunity for receiving financial aid, which they could not otherwise receive due to sanctions imposed on them by Western countries. In this context, it should be noted that in recent years, the Israeli security services have revealed that Hamas has used international aid organizations operating in the Gaza Strip to receive funds intended for humanitarian assistance.
7. The report also examined financial and material ties between terrorist organizations and NGOs promoting delegitimization and boycott campaigns. These ties work in both directions. Thus, terrorist operatives assist NGOs in fundraising, share human resources and jointly promote public campaigns, conferences, delegations and events.
8. Some NGOs tied to terrorist organizations have received funding from European countries and EU institutions, both in the past and in the present. These NGOs are also funded by aid agencies which in turn are financed by Western governments (i.e. indirect governmental financing), and by private philanthropic foundations. In our estimation, in light of the ties between the terror organizations and these NGOs, there is concern that government and private funds are being transferred to terrorist organizations, both directly and indirectly.
9. The Ministry of Strategic Affairs intends to release an additional report in 2019 which will examine the direct and indirect governmental funding, as well as the funding of international aid organizations and private philanthropic foundations, to the NGOs discussed in this study and others. This following a recently published study on the funding granted by EU institutions to NGOs promoting anti-Israel activities and the BDS campaign, estimated at millions of euros each year.

Recommendations

1. Hamas and the PFLP are carrying out a range of activities in Western countries to promote their radical agenda through civil society NGOs. This report raises the concern that some governmental and philanthropic funding to European, Palestinian and American NGOs may be used, directly or indirectly, in supporting activities of terrorist organizations. This is a significant concern particularly due to the fungible nature of such funds and the lack of transparency in which some NGOs, particularly Palestinian NGOs, account for the funds granted to them.
2. Therefore, the State of Israel calls upon governments, international aid organizations, philanthropic foundations and global financing and banking institutions to:
 - A. Examine the activities of NGOs which promote the agenda of terrorist organizations and ensure that no ties, either direct or indirect, exist between these NGOs and designated terrorist organizations (particularly Hamas and the PFLP.)
 - B. Immediately end all funding to NGOs with ties to such terrorist organizations, and conduct thorough examinations to ensure that funds granted in the past were not transferred to terror groups, in accordance with conventions and legislation for the prevention of terror financing.

PART 1 - The Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine terrorist organization

Overview

1. The Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine (PFLP) is a designated terrorist organization in Israel (1986)¹, the USA (1997)², the European Union (2002)³ and Canada (2003)⁴
2. The organization was established by George Habash and Mustafa Abu Ali in 1967. The PFLP has a Marxist, national-secular ideology, and was the first Palestinian organization to hijack passenger airliners in the late 1960s and 1970s. Ideologically, the PFLP views itself as part of the global axis-of-terror, as senior PFLP Central Committee member Jamil Mazhar stated: “We see ourselves as a fundamental part of the axis of resistance, which spans Lebanon, Iraq, Syria, Yemen and Iran.”⁵
3. In 2001, the PFLP was responsible for the murder of then Israeli Minister of Tourism Rehavam Ze’evi. The PFLP carried out suicide terrorist attacks and shootings in Israel during the Palestinian terrorist campaign known as the “Second Intifada” (2000-2005), which claimed the lives of dozens of Israelis and injured hundreds more.
4. In 2005, members of a PFLP terrorist cell which planned to assassinate Israel's former Chief Rabbi, Rabbi Ovadia Yosef, were arrested. Among the cell members was Salah Hammouri. He was released as part of the Gilad Shalit prisoner exchange in 2011 and currently is employed as a field worker at the NGO Addameer, which promotes the BDS campaign against Israel.⁶

Over the past few years, PFLP terrorist cell members, who planned or carried out terror attacks, including planning the abduction of Israeli soldiers, were arrested by the Israel Security Agency.⁷ In 2011, a senior PFLP activist, Leila Khaled, served as mediator between the Syrian PFLP command center and a senior PFLP operative in Jerusalem who led a terror cell charged with carrying out terror attacks. It should be emphasized that alongside her activity in the PFLP, Leila Khaled is also prominently involved in promoting anti-Israel boycotts in several arenas.⁸

- The military branch of the PFLP also took responsibility for additional terrorist attacks; chief amongst them the 2014 Jerusalem Har Nof Synagogue Massacre, in which five congregants and a police officer were murdered. Two of the terrorists were relatives of a PFLP operative who served 22 years in prison for stabbing a soldier, and was arrested several days before the massacre.⁹

6. In addition, the PFLP military branch in Gaza launched dozens of rockets toward Israel. The PFLP also participated in the violent border riots known as the Marches of Return, (which began in March 2018 and are led by Hamas, which tried to make them appear as spontaneous civic activity, whilst in practice being planned anti-Israel activities). According Leila Khaled, the PFLP plays a role in the marches, with its operatives among those killed and injured.¹⁰
7. The PFLP has frequently expressed strong opposition to the Oslo Accords signed by Israel and the Palestinian Liberation Organization, leading numerous campaigns to have them annulled.¹¹ Leila Khaled has expressed this viewpoint while visiting Germany (2016) as part of a tour of European countries, stating: “Negotiations will be held only with knives and weapons”.¹²
8. Recently, the German Foreign Ministry requested (December 2018) that the Palestinian Mission in Germany remove the following Facebook post encouraging terror. The post features a picture of Leila Khaled with the slogan: “Resistance is Not Terrorism”.¹³

The Palestinian BDS National Committee (BNC) and its ties to the PFLP and Hamas terrorist organizations

The Palestinian BDS National Committee (BNC) is the organization spearheading the international boycott, divestment and sanctions campaign against Israel. It does not recognize Israel's right to exist, opposes the peace process between Israelis and Palestinians, and works to boycott and isolate Israel.

The BDS National Committee is a coalition of 28 Palestinian organizations and associations. Foremost among them is the Council of National and Islamic Forces in Palestine (PNIF), itself a coalition of 12 Palestinian factions, including the designated terrorist organizations PFLP, Hamas and Islamic Jihad.

The BDS National Committee has a cultural-academic arm, the Palestinian Campaign for the Academic and Cultural Boycott of Israel (PACBI). PACBI employs tactics of harassment and intimidation against artists, actors and other cultural figures who maintain ties with Israel .

The BDS National Committee has coordinators located throughout the world, including in Europe (Spain), the United States, South Asia (India), the Middle East and Latin America (Brazil).

A. Profile: BNC

1. Headquarters: Ramallah, Palestinian Authority

2. Year Founded: 2007

3. Areas of Operation: Worldwide

4. Senior Officials:

- A. Omar Barghouti – Co-founder of the BDS campaign
- B. Mahmoud Nawajaa – BNC General Coordinator
- C. Salah Khawaja – Member of the BNC Secretariat
- D. Haidar Eid – Member of the BNC Secretariat
- E. Zaid Shuaibi – BNC Arab World & Palestine Coordinator
- F. Abd al-Rahman Abu Nahel – BNC Gaza Coordinator
- G. Alys Estapé – BNC Europe Coordinator
- H. Garrick Ruiz – BNC USA Coordinator
- I. Pedro Charbel – BNC Latin America Coordinator

5. Activities:

- A. On a global level, the Palestinian BDS National Committee (BNC) views itself as the umbrella organization which leads the worldwide BDS campaign. It works unceasingly to demonize Israel as an apartheid state, equating it to the former South African regime.
- B. The BNC leads and coordinates Palestinian and international boycott campaigns in a wide variety of areas – cultural, academic, economic, governmental, labor unions and more.¹⁶ To advance its campaigns internationally, the BNC has coordinators around the globe – from Southeast Asia to the Middle East and from Europe to the US and Latin America.
- C. BNC co-founder Omar Barghouti has stated: “No Palestinian will ever accept a Jewish state in any part of Palestine.”¹⁷ Haidar Eid, BNC Secretariat member, stated that his 2019 New Year resolutions are to “liberate Palestine, move to Haifa, and write a book on the defeat of Zionism.”¹⁸

- D. Academic and Cultural Boycott – Co-founded by Omar Barghout in 2004, The Palestinian Campaign for the Academic and Cultural Boycott of Israel (PACBI) was founded prior to the establishment of the BNC in order to promote academic and cultural boycotts against the State of Israel, inspiring other organizations to do so as well. Over the last several years, PACBI has adopted tactics of intimidation and threats against artists who plan to perform in Israel. PACBI also serves as one of the BNC's fundraising arms in the US.
- E. In the United States - The BNC has a Regional Coordinator in the United States. The BNC's PACBI has a dedicated NGO in the US which promotes the academic and cultural boycotts of Israel, the US Campaign for the Academic and Cultural Boycott of Israel (USACBI).

The Palestinian BDS National Committee and its Ties to Terrorist Organizations

1. The Palestinian BDS National Committee (BNC) is a coalition of 28 Palestinian organizations, associations and unions.
2. Foremost among them is the Council of National and Islamic Forces in Palestine, also known as the Palestinian National and Islamic Forces (PNIF).¹⁹ The PNIF is a signatory to the Palestinian "Call for BDS from 2005"²⁰ and to the 2007 founding BNC Conference, as well as subsequent BNC conferences.
3. The PNIF is a coordinating framework for 12 Palestinian national and religious factions, including the designated terrorist organizations Hamas, PFLP and Islamic Jihad.²¹ Founded in 2000, its purpose was to lead and coordinate terrorist activities between its various member organizations at the onset of the "Second Intifada" terror campaign, in which over 1,000 Israelis were murdered and 6,000 injured.

The BDS National Committee Coalition

4. Since its founding, The PNIF has consistently called for boycotts of Israeli products,²² and it continues to regularly promote BDS. The PNIF has called for rioting at sensitive flashpoints against Israelis living in Judea and Samaria. Following the move of the U.S. Embassy to Jerusalem, PNIF increased its hostility toward the US, and it even considers US institutions in Judea and Samaria as legitimate targets for attack.²³
5. Along with its support for boycotts, PNIF consistently glorifies terrorists and their actions. For example, it held a rally in honor of the “Martyrs of Palestine”

Ashraf Na'alwa shot three Israelis, murdering two of them in October 2018. He was killed in a shootout with Israeli security forces two months later.

Salah Barghouti carried out a drive-by shooting in December 2018, wounding a married couple. As a result of this attack the mother, who was severely wounded in the 30th week of pregnancy, was rushed to an emergency premature delivery. However the child did not survive the attack and passed away after several days.²⁶

BNC Coordinator and Spokesman, Mahmoud Nawajaa, uploaded a post in which he glorified the terrorist Na'alwa: "What is the difference between Ashraf Na'alwa and Ashraf al-Ajrami [a former minister who appeared on Israel's Kan television channel condemning the violence]? Al-Ajrami is not worth the torn shoe sole of Na'alwa."²⁷

The PFLP has several representatives in the PNIF, the lead coalition member of the BDS National Committee:

- A. Salah Khawaja is a member of the BNC Secretariat,²⁸ and a former PFLP operative who serves as a member of the PNIF leadership.²⁹ Since 1983, Khawaja was arrested on seven occasions due to his involvement in terrorist activities. His last incarceration was in 2016, when he was sentenced to one-year prison for contacts with a hostile entity.
- B. Jamil Mazhar, a senior PFLP official in the Gaza Strip and member of its Central Council, serves as the representative of PNIF in the Gaza Strip.

In July 2018, as part of a conference held in Iran, Jamil Mazhar spoke in favor of terrorist violence (euphemistically dubbed “resistance”) and attacked the United States, declaring: “The Palestinian factions express solidarity with Iran against American bullying, and the inclusion of the factions on the terror list is proof of the justness of the resistance. We see ourselves as a fundamental part of the axis of resistance, which spans from Lebanon, Iraq, Syria, Yemen and Iran”.³¹

D. Mahmoud Abu Tah, from Ramallah, is a representative of PFLP in the PNIF, and was arrested in June 2017.³⁴

7. Palestinian National and Islamic Forces (PNIF), the lead coalition member of the BDS National Committee, and Hamas

A. Hamas is the most prominent actor within PNIF in Gaza. Senior Hamas figures have served as representatives of the Palestinian National and Islamic Forces Council since its inception.

B. A senior Hamas official in PNIF was Said Siyam, the Minister of Interior who was responsible for founding Hamas' operational security force in Gaza, which violently overthrew Fatah in the Gaza Strip in 2007.³⁵

C. Today, Ismail Radwan, a senior Hamas figure, serves as the representative of Hamas in the PNIF.³⁶ Radwan was formerly a minister in the Hamas government and a spokesperson for the terror organization. He also serves as Deputy Chairman of the Board of Directors of Hamas's Al-Aqsa Network. Radwan is one of the most prominent spokespeople of the Hamas riots on the Gaza border, which began in March 2018.

Radwan is known to have close ties with Ismail Haniyeh, head of Hamas' political bureau, and both frequently visit families of killed terrorists. Radwan participated in the Islamic Unity Conference held in Tehran (November 2018)³⁷, in which he referred to Iranian aid, saying: “Thank you very much to Iran, Radwan has also expressed extremely inflammatory and anti-Semitic remarks over the years. As a Hamas representative in the “Supreme National Authority for the March of Return and Breaking the Siege”, the NGO nominally in charge of the violent riots along the Gaza border that began in March 2018,³⁹ Radwan stated (November 2018): “Those cowards who coordinate and cooperate [with the State of Israel], and those who normalize [relations] with the occupation – they will burn in hell with the apes and pigs. Samidoun and its ties to the PFLP terrorist organization

Samidoun, a leading promoter of BDS, is a North American-based NGO which labels itself “the Palestinian Prisoner Solidarity Network.” It has a wide network of ties with the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine (PFLP) terrorist organization. A Samidoun activist was trained by Hezbollah in Lebanon as well as delivered funds he received in Syria and Lebanon to PFLP activists in Belgium. It is quite possible that this method of action has occurred more than once.

B. Profile: Samidoun

1. Headquarters: USA
2. Year Founded: 2012
3. Areas of Operation: Lebanon, Canada, USA, Sweden, UK, France, Germany, Belgium, Greece and the Palestinian Authority
4. Senior Officials:
 - A. Charlotte Kates – International Coordinator
 - B. Mohammed Khatib – Europe Coordinator
 - C. Mustapha Awad – European Representative
 - D. Joe Catron – US Coordinator
 - E. Maram Saadi – Lebanon Coordinator
5. Activities:
 - A. Samidoun's mission is focused on pressing for the release of Palestinians arrested for their ties to terrorism and particularly to the PFLP terrorist organization.⁵⁵ The organization advocates for the release, among others, of PFLP General Secretary Ahmad Sa’adat, launching their most recent campaign for his release in January 2019.

⁵⁵ Samidoun website, September 2018, <https://samidoun.net/category/take-action/page/2/>

A poster calling for Sa'adat's release from the Samidoun website⁵⁶

- B. Samidoun is working to form a network of connections with leading BDS and anti-Israel organizations. Samidoun's International Coordinator Charlotte Kates is also a member of the American academic boycott organization USACBI, the BNC's Palestinian Campaign for the Academic and Cultural Boycott of Israel (PACBI) dedicated NGO in the US, and was one of the leaders of the Al-Awda branch in New York.⁵⁷
- C. Samidoun combines a call to BDS in his actions. Additionally it promotes the BNC's call to boycott the security company G4S due to its involvement in the construction of detention facilities in Israel.⁵⁸
- D. Samidoun maintains contact with the organizers of the "March of Return and Breaking the Siege", which is led by Hamas, the Islamic Jihad and PFLP. Following the request of the organizers of the march, Samidoun asked their followers to send to operatives in Gaza video clips of them opposing the UN Security Council's intention to condemn Hamas (December 3rd, 2018).⁵⁹

Samidoun and the PFLP

1. Operatives active in both organizations/ family ties

- A. Samidoun has two activists operating from Europe – Mustapha Awad and Mohammed Khatib, both of whom belong to the terrorist organization PFLP. In August 2018, the ISA disclosed that the PFLP recruited Samidoun activist Mustapha Awad, a Lebanese national, in 2010.⁶⁰
- B. According to the ISA, Awad was a member of a PFLP terrorist cell operating in Europe, and was in contact with terrorist operatives from Lebanon, Syria, Jordan, and the Palestinian Authority.⁶¹
- C. Khaled Barakat, a PFLP Central Committee member in Lebanon, (see more on Barakat below) arranged for Awad to begin his military training in 2015 in Lebanon with Hezbollah, a terrorist organization designated by in the USA, Canada and the Arab League (excluding Lebanon and Iraq), the Netherlands and Japan.⁶² The military wing of Hezbollah is recognized as a terrorist organization by the European Union, UK, France and New Zealand. Awad also took part in a 2015 meeting in Germany with PFLP operatives, during which they discussed how to revamp the organizations activities.⁶³
- D. It should be noted that Awad transferred funds from Lebanon and Syria to Kahled Barkat, in Belgium, on at least two occasions during 2016-2017, additionally, he left his personal laptop and mobile phone with convicted terrorist Leila Khaled in Jordan before attempting to enter Israel via the Allenby Bridge Border Crossing, where he was arrested (July 2018). Awad was sentenced to 12 months in prison, as well as 12 months on probation, for membership in a terrorist organization, prohibited military training and use of property for terrorist activities.⁶⁴

- E. Khaled Barakat, a member of the PFLP is married to Samidoun's International Coordinator, Charlotte Kates.⁶⁵ Kates, a senior representative of the Samidoun NGO, and Barakat, a senior representative of a terrorist organization, manage campaigns together and appear together at conferences.⁶⁶
- F. Barakat, as mentioned, is a Central Committee member of the PFLP and the Solidarity Campaign Coordinator for the release of PFLP General Secretary – Ahmad Sa'adat, one of the planners of the assassination of Israeli Tourism Minister Rehavam Ze'evi. The PFLP campaign website uses elements identical to those on the Samidoun website.⁶⁷ In light of this, and in light of his connection with Charlotte Kates, it is likely that donations made through the Samidoun website benefitted Barakat and the PFLP.
- G. Barakat is presented on the Samidoun website and in the English-language media in general as a Palestinian writer and activist, while in Arabic he is directly associated with the PFLP Central Committee.⁶⁸
- H. Barakat posted on his Facebook page (November 5th, 2018) a video clip of the terrorist who murdered two Israelis in October 2018 and was eventually killed in a firefight with security forces in December 2018.⁶⁹

2. Joint campaigns between Samidoun and the PFLP

- A. Samidoun conducts intensive activities to promote the release of PFLP terrorists. This activity takes place in coordination and cooperation with the PFLP terrorist organization.
- B. Mustapha Awad, who was trained by Hezbollah and transferred terrorist funds to Belgium, represented Samidoun at the Shatila Refugee Camp in Lebanon, as part of Samidoun's campaign to release PFLP terrorist Bilal Kaid (August 2016). Kaid, a member of the military branch of the PFLP, was arrested in 2002 and was sentenced to 14 and a half years in prison for being a member of the PFLP as well as for two counts of attempted murder for taking part in two shooting attacks.
- C. The judge noted in his July 2016 verdict that Kaid was a central figure in the PFLP, stating: "Kaid never stopped his activities in the organization, but rather served as leader of the PFLP prisoners in Megiddo Prison, acting to promote the organization's objectives in prison." The judge added that Kaid was also active in the terrorist activities of the organization, and not just the running of daily operations: "His actions are deeply militaristic, and were it not for the respondent's arrest, he would be free to complete these acts [of terror]."⁷¹

- D. In September 2015, Samidoun, together with the Handala Center (The PFLP center for incarcerated and released prisoners), held a campaign in the Palestinian Authority and abroad in support of six PFLP terrorist operatives. Five of them appear on PFLP posters as members of the PFLP.⁷⁴
- E. As part of Samidoun and the PFLP's joint activities with foreign diplomats for the release of terrorists, Charlotte Kates, Khaled Barakat and Mustapha Awad met with the South African Ambassador in Belgium (2016) and the South African Ambassador in Germany (2018).⁷⁵

3. Samidoun and its operatives' support of terrorism

- A. Charlotte Kates wrote an article in honor of the anniversary of the October 17th, 2001 assassination of Israeli Tourism Minister, Rehavam Ze'evi, quoting a PFLP senior operative who termed the murder "a symbol of heroism".⁷⁷ In her article, Kates even directs readers to the PFLP website, which glorifies the assassination.

Addameer and its ties to the PFLP terrorist organization

Addameer was founded by members of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine, many of whom were convicted of terrorist activity, with the mission to support and advocate on behalf of Palestinian prisoners. The NGO, which promotes the BDS campaign against the State of Israel, continues to maintain significant ties with the PFLP. These ties include members of the NGO who are simultaneously members of the PFLP, legal representation of PFLP members charged with terrorism offenses (some of whom also hold positions in the NGO), and joint campaigns with the PFLP.

C. Profile: Addameer

1. Headquarters: Palestinian Authority, Ramallah
2. Year Founded: 1992
3. Areas of Operation: Palestinian Authority
4. Key Officials:
 - A. Sahar Francis – Director
 - B. Mahmoud Hassan – Legal Unit Manager
 - C. Ayman Nasser – Legal Unit Coordinator
 - D. Abdullatif Ghaith – Chairperson of Board of Directors & General Assembly
 - E. Khalida Jarrar – Director (1993-2006) and Deputy Director of Board of Directors & General Assembly (2006-2017)
5. Activities:
 - A. Providing legal representation for Palestinian prisoners and detainees, especially those affiliated with the terrorist organization PFLP.
 - B. The NGO has been an active proponent of the boycott campaign against the State of Israel (BDS) since 2005.⁸¹

⁸¹ BDS website, July 2005, <https://bdsmovement.net/call>

C. Addameer is active in the divestment campaign against security company G4S, due to its presence in Israel.⁸²

6. Governmental Sponsors up to 2017: Norway, Human Rights & International Law Secretariat (Switzerland, Sweden, Denmark and the Netherlands) and Ireland. Towards the end of 2017 the secretariat stopped funding Palestinian organizations; it is unclear at this time whether these countries continue to provide funding to Addameer.

7. Known Grants From Governmental Sources, 2014-2017: $937,700

Ties between Addameer and the PFLP

1. Operatives with Dual Roles in Addameer and the PFLP:

- A. Khalida Jarrar – Deputy Director of Addameer’s Board of Directors until 2017. Jarrar is a senior member of the PFLP leadership and its representative in the Palestinian Legislative Council. Jarrar served as Director of Addameer from 1993 to 2006. While serving as Deputy Director of the Board of Directors, she served a year in prison due to her role in inciting acts of terrorism. Since 2017, Jarrar has been placed in administrative detention due to her role as a senior member of the PFLP and her involvement in terrorist activities.
- B. Abdullatif Ghaith – Chairperson of Addameer’s Board of Directors and one of its founders (1992)⁸³, Ghaith also served as a member of the PFLP’s political bureau.⁸⁴ As a result of his activity to encourage PFLP terror, and his ties with PFLP terrorists abroad, he was placed under a travel ban in 2017.⁸⁵
- C. Ayman Nasser – Addameer’s Legal Unit Coordinator, Nasser served a six-year prison sentence in the 1990s for membership in the PFLP.⁸⁶ He was arrested again on October 15th, 2012 due to his ongoing ties with the PFLP. An indictment was filed against him on multiple charges, including membership in the PFLP and operating on its behalf.⁸⁷ On June 3rd, 2013, Nasser was convicted of membership in the PFLP and of being an operative of the PFLP public action committee.

Nasser was placed in administrative detention for a year in 2014. In the Judicial Order, the judge noted: "...should the respondent be released, he would pose a threat to the area's security. The respondent is a PFLP operative, with arrests in his past relating to activities which posed a threat to security. I am satisfied that the respondent's detention is unrelated to his activity with a human rights NGO, but is rather due to his activities with the PFLP."

In September 2018, he was arrested once again, until March 2019, due to his ongoing activity as a member of the PFLP.

- D. Yaqoub Oude – Oude is an Addameer Board of Directors and General Assembly member who was a PFLP terrorist for decades.⁸⁸ Oude was involved in the Jerusalem Shufersal supermarket bombing in 1969, together with convicted PFLP terrorist Rasmae Odeh, in which two Israelis (Leon Kanner and Eduard Jaffe) were murdered and nine others were injured. After searching the area, another unexploded explosive charge was found.⁸⁹ Oude was sentenced to three life sentences, but served only 17 years in prison after being released in a prisoner exchange deal in 1985 (Jibril Agreement).⁹⁰

- E. Salah Hammouri – Addameer Field Researcher. Hammouri was arrested in 2005 for his involvement with a PFLP terrorist cell which planned to assassinate Israel's former Chief Rabbi Ovadia Yosef. His involvement included contacting and recruiting military operatives of the PFLP, and directing two fellow members as to how to carry out terrorist attacks. The three obtained weapons and ammunition and began planning attacks all over Jerusalem. Hammouri was arrested in again August 2017 and was released a year later.

Jaddah was arrested again in 2006.⁹⁵
- G. Bashir al-Khairi – Addameer Board of Directors member and former senior PFLP operative. Al-Khairi served 17 years in prison after which he was released in the Jibril Prisoner Exchange Agreement in 1985. He was subsequently arrested twice more, most recently in 2010. He is also a past president of the Board of Directors of the Agricultural Cooperatives Union.

3. Joint Campaigns:

Addameer is leading an international campaign for the release of its former Director and former Deputy Director of its Secretariat, Khalida Jarrar.

In addition, members of Addameer are working to release other terrorists. For example, Addameer Director Sahar Francis has represented Palestinian terrorists over the years, including known PFLP military branch operative Bilal Kaid, who was imprisoned in 2002 for 15 years.

4. Addameer and Its Support for Terrorism:

- A. In April 2015, an indictment was filed against Khalida Jarrar, Addameer's former Director and former Board of Director's Deputy Director. A series of security-related charges were filed against her, including active membership in the terrorist group PFLP and “incitement to abduct soldiers for the purpose of negotiations for the release of security prisoners, most prominently Ahmad Sa'adat, General Secretary of the organization.” Jarrar agreed to a plea deal and was released from prison in June 2016.¹⁰⁰ Jarrar was rearrested and placed under administrative detention in July 2017. Muataz Washaha and his brother, Fadi Washaha, were involved in a 2014 shooting attack. Fadi admitted to carrying out the terrorist attack with his brother, and even provided the improvised gun used to carry out the attack. Muataz Washaha was killed during an attempt by Israeli security forces to arrest him, which led to a standoff lasting several hours during which he refused to turn himself in to the authorities.¹⁰²

During Jarrar's visit, she stressed that "in the end we will overcome the occupation, despite all its crimes".¹⁰³

Al-Haq and its ties to the PFLP terrorist organization

Al-Haq, an NGO which is one of the leaders of the campaign to promote boycotts and the delegitimization of Israel, is led by Shawan Jabarin, a former senior operative of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine terrorist group, who has served several prison sentences due to his terrorist activity.

Al-Haq has partnerships with a range of Palestinian and European NGOs which also promote BDS. Jabarin, Al-Haq's General Director, employs at the NGO other former PFLP operatives who have also served prison sentences.

D. Profile: Al-Haq

1. Headquarters: Palestinian Authority, Ramallah
2. Year Founded: 1979
3. Areas of Operation: Judea and Samaria, the Netherlands, France, Northern Europe
4. Senior Officials:
 - A. Shawan Jabarin – Director
 - B. Nada Kiswanson –Representative in Europe
5. Activities:
 - A. Al-Haq maintains many ties with multiple self-described human rights NGOs, while encouraging them to promote boycotts against the State of Israel. For example, in March 2017, a group of French NGOs published a report together with Al-Haq entitled “The Dangerous Liaisons of French Banks with the Israeli Colonization”. The report includes recommendations for the French Government regarding the relationships between “French financial institutions with the Israeli banking system and the settlements”.¹⁰⁴

B. Al-Haq, applies unceasing pressure on the UN's Human Rights Council to publish a blacklist of companies operating in Judea and Samaria.¹⁰⁵ It should be noted that Al-Haq (together with the Palestinian Centre for Human Rights and the Al Mezan Center for Human Rights) was involved in preparing the materials that led to the publication of the discredited UN Fact Finding Mission on the Gaza Conflict (also known as the Goldstone Report) following Operation Cast Lead in 2009, and continues to push for the prosecution of senior Israeli officials for alleged "war crimes".

C. Al-Haq also leads the legal effort to delegitimize Israel at the International Criminal Court (ICC) in The Hague.

6. Governmental Sponsors: European Union, Norway, Switzerland, Sweden, Denmark, the Netherlands and Ireland

7. Known Grants from Governmental Sources, 2014-2018: Over $3 million

Al-Haq and the PFLP

1. Operatives with Dual Roles in Al-Haq and the PFLP:

A series of senior officials in Al-Haq, including its General Director, were members of the PFLP and have served sentences of several years or more in Israeli prisons due to their membership in the terrorist group:

A. Shawan Jabarin

Jabarin, General Director of Al-Haq since 2006, served as a senior PFLP official in the past and at least until recently maintained close ties with PFLP operatives in Judea and Samaria. Jabarin was tried and convicted for his military activity in the PFLP and has served multiple prison sentences. In the 1990s, he was arrested several times due to his involvement as a senior official of the PFLP.

As a student at Bir Zeit University, Jabarin was a member of the PFLP student organization. Later he was involved in recruiting operatives and sending them for military training abroad, for which he was sentenced to 9 months in prison.¹⁰⁶

In the 1990s, Jabarin was arrested several times as a senior PFLP operative. In a 2007 Supreme court decision the judge presiding over his case described Jabarin as a "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. Some of his time is spent in conducting a human rights organization, and some as an operative in an organization which has no qualms regarding murder and attempted murder, which have no relation whatsoever to rights. Quite the opposite, they reject the most basic right of all, without which there are no other rights, that is, the right to life." In a verdict regarding his appeal, in 2008, the court said it found credible evidence that Jabarin "is one of the senior operatives of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine.¹⁰⁷...We found the materials indicating the petitioner's involvement in terrorist activities to be substantive and reliable... the petitioner's travel prohibition is... due to significant security concerns. Therefore, we find no reason to intervene on the respondent's decision prohibiting the petitioner from travelling abroad."¹⁰⁸

Jabarin has employed several operatives of the PFLP in Al-Haq, all of which have served sentences in Israeli prisons on the grounds of terrorist activity.

B. Ziyad Muhammad Shehadeh Hmeidan

Hmeidan worked at Al-Haq from 1996 or earlier until 2017 as the Director of the Skills and Training Department.¹⁰⁹ He was arrested in 1996 and again between 2005-2007 for illegal military activity in the PFLP. The 2006 warrant for the extension of his administrative detention stated that Hmeidan "was closely affiliated with terrorist operations in the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine. The confidential evidence provided reliably demonstrates that the threat the respondent poses is yet to pass... Examination of the detainee's character shows that it is fair to assume that the threat the respondent poses will not decrease in the coming months."

D. Majed Omar Daud Abbadi

Abbadi worked at Al-Haq for several years until 2016 as Project and Planning Director.¹¹¹ He was arrested in the early 1990s for his activities in the PFLP.

The European Coordination of Committees and Associations for Palestine (ECCP) and its ties to the PFLP terrorist organization

The European Coordination of Committees and Associations for Palestine (ECCP) operates in Brussels and is an umbrella organization for 42 European NGOs which promote delegitimization and boycotts against the State of Israel. The ECCP operates mainly within European Union institutions. The organization campaigns for the release of incarcerated terrorists, and has funded from its budget the activities of PFLP members.

F. Profile: ECCP

2. Year Founded: 1986
3. Areas of Operation: European Union Headquarters in Brussels
4. Senior Officials:
 - A. Aneta Jerska – Coordinator
 - B. Véronique De Keyser – President, former European Union Parliamentarian
5. Activities:
 - A. ECCP states on its official website that one of its aims is the “promotion of the BDS campaign and its objectives” as well as “the unconditional release of all Palestinian prisoners”.¹²³
 - B. In early 2016, ECCP called to immediately end commercial relations between European governments and G4S security services, since, according to the NGO, the security company provides services and equipment to Israeli detention centers holding Palestinian prisoners.¹²⁴

BDS South Africa and its ties to the PFLP terrorist organization

BDS South Africa is the leading anti-Israel boycott NGO in South Africa and plays a central role in the global BDS campaign against Israel. It disingenuously draws on South Africa's past under the apartheid regime as a model for the boycott campaign against Israel, a theme which reverberates with NGOs around the world. Leila Khaled, a renowned hijacker of a passenger airline and member of the PFLP terrorist group, acted as an official fundraiser for BDS South Africa.

G. Profile: BDS South Africa

3. Senior Officials:

- A. Muhammed Desai – Co-founder, Director and Board Member
- B. Kwara Kekana – Spokesperson, Campaign Manager and Board Member
- C. Farid Esack – Board Chairperson

4. Activities:

- A. BDS South Africa has invested great efforts in convincing South Africa's leading political party, the African National Congress (ANC), to support downgrading the Israel Embassy's status from diplomatic representative to liaison office. BDS South Africa operates in various arenas to boycott and delegitimize the State of Israel – in the cultural, academic, and economic arenas and in Christian circles.¹³⁰
- B. For over a decade, BDS South Africa has been promoting Israel Apartheid Week in cities and universities across the country and the world.¹³¹ This campaign has led to dozens of violent incidents against Jewish students on campus. Just recently, Canadian Prime Minister, Justin Trudeau condemned

5. Joint Campaigns:

BDS South Africa has campaigned for the release of imprisoned PFLP terrorist operative Bilal Kaid.¹³⁵ Kaid, a member of the military branch of the PFLP, was arrested in 2002 and sentenced to 14 years in prison on two charges of attempted murder in terrorist attacks.

6. Financial Ties:

Senior PFLP member and airline hijacker Leila Khaled participated in fundraising campaigns for BDS South Africa in February 2015. Alongside members of the organization, Khaled raised funds for BDS South Africa's activities.¹³⁶

PART 2 - Hamas terrorist organization

Overview

1. Hamas has been designated a terrorist group by Israel (1989)¹³⁹, the United States (1997)¹⁴⁰, Canada (2002)¹⁴¹ and the European Union (2014).¹⁴²
2. Hamas is an Islamist-Sunni terrorist group which aims to establish a Palestinian Islamic fundamentalist state in place of the State of Israel. Hamas defines itself (based on its charter, published in August 1988) as the “Palestinian offshoot” of the Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood.¹⁴³ It was founded by Sheikh Ahmed Yassin and other Palestinian Islamist operatives in Gaza in December 1987.
3. Hamas includes a military wing and political bureau, and serves as the de facto ruler of the Gaza Strip. Much of Hamas’ leadership resides outside the Gaza Strip, mainly in Turkey and Lebanon. These senior Hamas operatives maintain ties with various countries and activists, primarily for the purpose of raising funds and resources for Hamas.
4. In the Palestinian Legislative Council elections held in 2006, Hamas won by a large majority of the Legislative Council votes (74 seats out of 132). Since the elections, Hamas has aimed to establish its standing as leader of the Palestinians. In 2007, the terrorist organization carried out a violent military coup in Gaza and forcibly drove the Fatah party from power in the Gaza Strip.
5. Under Hamas’ rule, rocket fire aimed at the State of Israel from the Gaza Strip dramatically increased to such a degree that three military operations (2008-2009, 2012, and 2014) were carried out to halt the rocket launches. Hamas’ efforts to upgrade its military capabilities continued throughout this time. On November 30th, 2018, the United States put forward a precedent-setting resolution at the UN General Assembly condemning Hamas and other militant groups in Gaza for repeatedly firing rockets into Israel, for carrying out other violent activities, such as launching incendiary balloons, for the use of civilian infrastructure for militant activities and more. The resolution won a majority, but not by the margin necessary for its adoption (87 in favor, 58 against, and 32 abstentions).

6. Hamas blatantly violates the human rights of Palestinians in Gaza who dare to publicly criticize it, openly and brutally conducts extrajudicial killings of Palestinians accused of collaborating with Israel.
7. At the same time, Hamas has developed nominally “civilian” opposition tactics, such as flotillas, assisted by its supporters in the West. Over the past year, Hamas has increased its efforts in the "civilian" sphere in the form of the "Marches of Return". Hamas leverages international relief and boycott-promoting NGOs to gain international attention, while endorsing the call for BDS.¹⁴⁴ The Marches of Return are financed by Hamas and include efforts to sabotage Israel’s border fence, plant explosive charges, launch incendiary terror kites toward Israeli communities and burn the farmlands on the Israeli side of the border. Most of the Palestinian casualties are members of Palestinian terrorist groups, mainly from Hamas (and some PFLP).

A falcon sent from Gaza, its leg tied to a rope dipped in flammable liquid as it perches on a tree.¹⁴⁵

8. In order to enhance its fundraising capabilities and spread its propaganda, Hamas works together with civilian NGOs, mainly in Europe (and at least in the past in the US as well). These NGOs are run by Hamas operatives and maintain continuous ties with senior Hamas officials. Their ties to terror are known despite methodical attempts to conceal their connections over the years, and efforts to “keep a low profile” out of a fear of being exposed. These NGOs support Hamas’ policy, and lead events, demonstrations and campaigns with the aim of delegitimizing the State of Israel and denying its right to exist.

9. This activity is in line with Hamas' strategy, as Political Bureau Chief Ismail Haniyeh stated (September 2018): “We must defend the Palestinian agenda in the humanitarian and global aspect as well. Today, many important opportunities exist, including in the Western countries, which can be relied on to build our strategy: the boycott movement - the BDS, the marches, solidarity convoys...”¹⁴⁶
10. In the last two years, a broader group was established, named the Popular Conference of Palestinians Abroad. This group is identified with Hamas and has therefore been criticized by Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas and his associates. The group’s general secretariat frequently convenes in Lebanon, where its members are known supporters of with Hamas, e.g. Majed al-Zeer and Zaher Birawi, who live and operate in the UK.¹⁴⁷ Al-Zeer and Birawi are recognized by the State of Israel as operatives of an association affiliated with Hamas.
11. The group’s General Secretariat organized a conference that took place in Istanbul in February 2017, which produced the following concluding statement: “The conference appreciates the extraordinary role the global movements fulfill as they seek justice for Palestinians. The NGOs that apply political pressure, the human rights organizations, the ships sent to break the siege in Gaza, the global boycott NGOs acting against the Zionist Occupation and those who demand prosecutions of the Occupation for war crimes are called upon by the Conference to increase their support.”¹⁴⁸
12. In addition, Hamas takes advantage of its ties with international relief organizations, using NGO funds to promote its terrorist operations. In the past two years, two severe instances of the misuse of funds were revealed:
 - A. World Vision is a well-established international Christian relief organization that has operations in the Palestinian Authority and the Gaza Strip. Hamas’s military

During this time, Halabi took advantage of his position and transferred aid, equipment and relief packages sent by World Vision to Hamas, which were used to pay the salaries of Hamas operatives, and support the construction of terror tunnels and Hamas' military buildup. Approximately 60% of the NGO's Gaza branch's annual budget was transferred to Hamas.¹⁴⁹

The Palestinian Center for Human Rights and its ties to Hamas and the PFLP terrorist organizations

The Palestinian Center for Human Rights (PCHR), based in Gaza, describes itself as "dedicated to protecting human rights, promoting the rule of law and upholding democratic principles."

The organization's Director-General, Raji Sourani, maintains close ties with Hamas, including providing legal assistance to the terrorist organization. PCHR's former deputy Chair of the Board was a senior official in the PFLP's military wing.

PCHR collaborates with both Palestinian and European NGOs which promote delegitimization and boycott of Israel.

3. Areas of Operation: Gaza Strip, Palestinian Authority, the Netherlands, France, Scandinavia
4. Senior Officials:
 - A. Raji Sourani – Founder and Director General
 - B. Iyad al-Alami – Legal Unit Director
5. Activities:
 - A. On a weekly basis, PCHR calls on the international community to boycott products, prohibit the employment of Palestinians, and cease all investments within Judea and Samaria. The organization calls to use all available means, "including sanctions in order to end the occupation of the State of Palestine."¹⁵¹

¹⁵¹ PCHR website, November 22nd, 2018, <https://pchrgaza.org/en/?p=11623>

- B. PCHR is a member-organization of Palestinian Human Rights Organizations Council (PHROC). As part of PHROC, PCHR is a signatory on a petition addressed to the UN Secretary-General, calling on him to terminate contracts with G4S due to the company's presence in Israel.¹⁵²
- C. PCHR, together with other Palestinian NGOs including Al-Haq, is active vis a vis the Prosecutor at the International Criminal Court (ICC) in the Hague. The PCHR worked to bring about the arrest of senior Israeli officials in the UK, the Netherlands, Switzerland, Spain and New Zealand for alleged war crimes.¹⁵³
6. Governmental Sponsors: Up until the end of 2017 Human Rights & International Law Secretariat (Switzerland, Sweden, Denmark, the Netherlands), Norway up until at least 2016 and Ireland prior even 2016. France according to PCHR 2017 annual report. Towards the end of 2017 the secretariat stopped funding Palestinian organizations; it is unclear at this time whether these countries continue to provide funding to PCHR.

1. Operatives with Dual Roles in PCHR and the PFLP:

Jaber Wishah, Deputy Director of the PCHR Board until 2017,¹⁵⁴ was in charge of the PFLP military wing, was sentenced to two life sentences and served 15 years in prison (1985-1999).¹⁵⁵

During his imprisonment, Wishah served three and a half years alongside terrorist Samir Kuntar, a PFLP terrorist who infiltrated Israel from Lebanon, kidnapping and murdering a father and daughter and shooting to death two policemen, in one of the most gruesome terror attacks in Israel's history.¹⁵⁶ Kuntar was released in a Hezbollah prisoner exchange in 2008 and was killed several years later. 2. PCHR and Its Operatives’ Support for Terrorism:

- A. PCHR Director-General Raji Sourani and Director of the Legal Department and Legal Aid Program, Iyad al-Alami, both maintained ties with Hamas (as of 2017). The two provided legal aid and consultation to Hamas, collecting materials and writing documents for the terror group’s use in legal proceedings against the State of Israel.
- B. Sourani expressed praise for the “professional work” of Hamas, stating that human rights NGOs operate under Hamas’ regime in a completely free manner.¹⁵⁸
- C. PCHR is deeply involved in the Hamas-led “Marches of Return”, on the Gaza border with Israel. The NGO produces video clips, weekly updates, and reports against IDF activities.¹⁵⁹

The Palestinian Return Centre (PRC) and its ties to Hamás terrorist organization

In 2010 the ISA announced that The Palestinian Return Centre (PRC) is a British NGO that serves as the organizational and coordinating arm of Hamás in Europe. Its activists maintain ties with senior Hamás officials and promote Hamás' policy. The PRC has directed anti-Israel, pro-Hamás activities for the past two decades, including advocating a boycott of the State of Israel. Due to its close ties with Hamás, the PRC was declared an illegal association by the State of Israel.

I. Profile: PRC

1. Country of Establishment: UK

2. Year Founded: 1996

3. Areas of Operation: UK, Scandinavia, Central Europe

4. Senior Officials:

- A. Majed al-Zeer – Director
- B. Ghassan Faour – Project Manager
- C. Salman Abu-Sitta – Founder

5. Activities:

- A. The PRC hosts the Palestinians in Europe Conference, which takes place each year (since 2003) in cities such as Paris, London, Milan, Berlin and Copenhagen. In these conferences, initiatives to delegitimize the State of Israel, such as flotillas, marches, and demonstrations, are discussed and planned. These meetings are used to coordinate campaigns in-line with Hamás' political agenda, such as the protests surrounding the 100th anniversary of the Balfour Declaration, and the campaign for the release of Palestinian security prisoners.
- B. The concluding statements of the last two conferences (2017, 2018) praised and supported the delegitimization and boycott campaigns against the State of Israel, declaring: “We appreciate the role of international NGOs in the boycott campaign.¹⁶⁰ Everyone should bear in mind on the centenary of the notorious Balfour Declaration... We appeal to the world’s free people and human rights advocates, far and wide, to speak up for the legitimate Palestinian cause, boycott the Israeli occupation, rescind investments with Israeli institutions, and impose sanctions on such a colonizing entity.”¹⁶¹

PRC and Hamas

1. Operatives with Dual Roles in the PRC and Hamas:

In designating the PRC an illegal association in 2010 due to its ties to Hamas, Israel's Defense Minister cited the following individuals in the explanation of the decision:¹⁶²

A. Majed al-Zeer, PRC Director-General. Al-Zeer is a member of the Board of Popular Conference of Palestinians Abroad, which convenes frequently in Lebanon.¹⁶³ It is the largest conference of Palestinians in the diaspora. Al-Zeer was interviewed for the Al-Aqsa TV channel, which belongs to Hamas (as confirmed by the United States Treasury Department) during one of the flotillas organized by Hamas (December 2018).¹⁶⁴

- D. Arafat Madi Shukri – Former Operational Manager of the PRC and Chairperson of the European Campaign to End the Siege on Gaza (ECESG), which was founded in 2007.
- E. Zaher Birawi (see separate chapter) – Former Chairperson of the PRC Board. Member of the General Secretariat of the Popular Conference of Palestinians Abroad and leader of its boycott committee.
2. Joint Campaigns:
- A. The PRC, led by Majed al-Zeer, organizes the Palestinians in Europe Conferences. Though this conference is not officially overseen by Hamas, over the years, many of its attendees were found to be affiliated with the terrorist group.
- B. Examples of senior Hamas officials' ties to the group include Ismail Haniyeh, who participated and gave speeches at the PRC's conferences on a number of occasions:

Ismail Haniyeh gave speeches over the phone and video calls (2006-2008).¹⁶⁷

Instead, he spoke to the conference by phone.¹⁷⁰ Today, he is a member of the Hamas Political Bureau, Head of the International Relations Council and Head of the Boycott Campaign in Palestine.¹⁷¹
- iii. Aziz Dweik – Speaker of the Palestinian Legislative Council. Dweik's speech was broadcast live during the 8th conference in Berlin in 2010, and again at the 12th conference in Paris in 2014.¹⁷² Dweik was arrested in 2006 for membership and activities in an illegal association. In 2008, he was sentenced to 36 months in prison, and two years of probation for five years. He was again arrested in 2012 and 2014. In 2015, Dweik was sentenced to a year's imprisonment on the same charges.
- iv. Muhammad Abu Tir – Palestinian Legislative Council representative from Hamas. His speech was broadcast live at the 11th conference in Brussels in 2013.¹⁷³ In 2016, Abu Tir was sentenced to 17 months in prison and 30 months of probation for five years, following his attempt to smuggle enemy funds to the region and involvement in illegal arms deals.

3. PRC and Its Operatives' Support of Terrorism:

- A. The PRC was involved, via the ECESG, in promoting the Mavi Marmara flotilla (May 31st, 2010), in collaboration with the radical Turkish organization, IHH.¹⁷⁴
- B. The PRC supported and advocated for the release of Dirar Abu Sisi from prison, who served as a weapons engineer for Hamas, with a specialty in rockets and anti-tank missiles. Abu Seesi worked to upgrade the range and penetrability of thousands of rockets which were launched over the years against the State of Israel, killing dozens and terrorizing millions of Israeli civilians. The indictment included a series of severe charges against Abu Sisi, including membership in a terror organization, providing services to an illegal association, conspiring to commit crimes, attempted murder and weapons-related offenses (attempts to develop illegal weapons).¹⁷⁵

In May 2013, at the 11th conference in Berlin, the PRC held a panel on Palestinian prisoners, especially focusing on Dirar Abu Seesi. Among the speakers on the panel was former convicted prisoner Majdi Aqil of the PRC.

The conference organizers set up a booth in Brussels calling for the release of the terrorist Abu Sisi¹⁷⁶

The Palestine Solidarity Campaign (PSC) and its ties to Hamas terrorist organization

The Palestine Solidarity Campaign (PSC) is one of the leading BDS and anti-Israel NGOs in the UK and in Europe, working closely with other NGOs to promote boycotts against the State of Israel.

The NGO has ties to Hamas operatives such as Muhammad Sawalha and Zaher Birawi, its leaders met with Ismail Haniyeh when he served as Hamas' Prime Minister in Gaza, and it maintains close ties with the Palestinian Return Centre (PRC), the organizational and coordinating arm of Hamas in Europe.

J. Profile: PSC

1. Country of Establishment: UK

2. Year Founded: 1982

3. Areas of Operation: UK

4. Senior Officials:

A. Ben Jamal - Director

B. Hugh Lanning – Chairperson

5. Activities:

PSC focuses on promoting boycotts and demonstrations against the State of Israel and against international corporations operating within the country. For example:

A. On June 5th, 2018, the PSC organized a demonstration in support of the Hamas-led Marches of Return, together with Friends of Al-Aqsa (FOA).¹⁷⁷

The demonstration included calls for an arms boycott against Israel.

¹⁷⁷ PSC website, June 5th, 2018, <https://www.palestinecampaign.org/events/london-protest-free-palestine-stop-the-killing-stop-arming-israel/>

- B. Together with other anti-Israel NGOs in UK, on June 5th, 2018, the PSC led the demonstrations on the Balfour Declaration's centenary, with the purpose of delegitimizing the Declaration.¹⁷⁸
- C. The PSC is a member-organization of the ECCP (see below), and is a signatory on a letter addressed to European countries, calling to suspend the Association Agreement with the State of Israel and immediately terminate collaborations associated with the Horizon 2020 program.¹⁷⁹
- D. The NGO called to boycott an Israeli culture festival in London, TLVinLONDON, which took place in 2017.

PSC and Hamas

1. Operatives with Dual Roles in the PSC and Hamas:

Kamel Hawwash, PSC Board member and former Deputy Chairperson, is a General Secretariat member of the Popular Conference of Palestinians Abroad, which, as noted above, is identified with Hamas.

2. Joint Campaigns:

- A. The PSC works with the PRC and its members. As described above, the PRC and several of its senior members and affiliates have been designated by Israel as illegal due to their connections to Hamas. In October 2017, the honorary President of the PSC, Betty Hunter, participated in the launching of the PRC's Balfour Apology Campaign.¹⁸⁰
- B. Several days after the Hamas-led Marches of Return began, the PSC and its partners in UK accelerated their campaign against the import and export of military equipment to Israel. On June 5th, the PSC organized a joint demonstration with Islamist anti-Israel groups in front of the British Prime Minister's residence in London.¹⁸¹

It also demanded that the leadership of the global Israel boycott campaign committee, as well as human rights organizations, take part in a humanitarian campaign to prevent "arming the Israeli occupation."¹⁸²

3. PSC and Its Operatives' Support of Terrorism:

- A. Sarah Colborne, PSC's former Director, and other PSC members participated in the Mavi Marmara flotilla in May 2010.¹⁸³
- B. "Miles of Smiles" is the name of aid convoys that began to travel to Gaza in 2009. The General Coordinator for these convoys, Dr. Essam Yousef, is Deputy Chairperson of the British Interpal foundation, which was declared as illegal in both Israel and the US. To date, 34 convoys have arrived in the Gaza Strip (the most recent one was in June 2018).¹⁸⁴

As part of the 13th Miles of Smiles delegation on June 13th, 2012, Hugh Lanning and Sara Colborne traveled to Gaza together with Muhammad Sawalha, Zaher Birawi and Essam Yousef – all operatives of British anti-Israel boycott promoting NGOs with close ties to Hamas.

- C. One of this delegation's highlights was a meeting in Gaza with Hamas Political Bureau Chief (then Prime Minister) – Ismail Haniyeh.

American Muslims for Palestine (AMP) and its ties to Hamas terrorist organization

American Muslims for Palestine (AMP) is one of the NGOs leading the BDS movement in the United States.

Leaders and senior members of AMP were involved, directly and indirectly, in providing funding assistance to Hamas. The funding activity took place through the Holy Land Foundation, which was the subject of US Treasury designations. As a result of this activity, and through the Islamic Association of Palestine (IAP), which a Federal court determined provided financial assistance to Hamas.

L. Profile: AMP

1. Country of Establishment: USA

2. Year Founded: 2005

3. Areas of Operation: USA

4. Activities:

A. AMP is an American NGO whose declared purpose is "educating the American public about Palestine".¹⁹³ Since 2015, American Muslims for Palestine has organized an annual Palestine Advocacy Day and Training weekend, where, amongst other things it promotes an anti-Israel agenda.¹⁹⁴

B. Central actions promoting boycotts against the State of Israel:

I. On its official website, the NGO declares that it supports the boycott campaign – BDS.¹⁹⁵ The NGO explains that BDS is a powerful and strategic tool for isolating the State of Israel, gives its website users

Hamas operatives active in NGOs in the UK:
Muhammad Sawalha

Muhammad Sawalha (AKA Abu Abada) was a member of Hamas' Political Bureau between 2013-2017. He served as a senior Hamas military official in Samaria in the late 1980s, during the period of Hamas' founding. After becoming wanted by Israel Authorities, Sawalha fled to Jordan using forged documents and then to the UK where he lives today.

Sawalha founded the Muslim Association of UK (MAB) and subsequently the British Muslim Initiative (BMI). He was a key figure in planning the Mavi Marmara flotilla in 2010, and in 2013 was declared by Israel's Defense Minister as an operative of an illegal association due to his ties to Hamas.

M. Profile: Muhammad Kazem Rashid Maruf Sawalha (AKA Abu Abada)

1. Place of Birth: Tubas, Palestinian Authority
2. Year of Birth: 1961
3. Areas of Operation: United Kingdom
4. Activities:
 - A. Sawalha is one of the founders of the Muslim Association of UK (MAB) and was its director until 2007. Currently his son, Obada Sawalha, serves as MAB Youth Director.²¹⁹ MAB is active in campaigns against the centennial of the Balfour Declaration as well as military trade with the State of Israel. Sawalha, together with other activists, left MAB and established the British Muslim Initiative (BMI), and now serves as its director.

- B. During 2009-2010, Sawalha was involved in organizing flotillas and convoys to the Gaza Strip. In a January 2010 interview, he stated that the coming convoy would be launched by sea in order to provoke a confrontation with Israel, declaring: “next time, the confrontation will be directly with the Zionist enemy itself on the high seas.” It should be noted that Sawalha participated in the preparations for the Mavi Marmara flotilla.
- C. Sawalha was involved in organizing the Global March to Jerusalem in 2012 and as one of the leaders of the International Committee for Breaking the Siege of Gaza (ICBSG), until Zaher Birawi succeeded him (see below).
- D. Throughout his years of activity in UK, Sawalha continues to hold meetings with operatives of prominent anti-Israel and boycott campaign NGOs.

B. Sawalha was a member of the Hamas Political Bureau during 2013-2017 and was in charge of the terror organization's foreign relations. As part of his position, he participated in a delegation of senior Hamas officials who met with the Russian Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs in Moscow (September 2017), thus revealing his continued ties with the terrorist organization.²²¹

Muhammad Sawalha was part of a senior Hamas delegation which met with the Russian Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs in Moscow in September 2017. The Hamas delegation was led by Mousa Abu Marzook, deputy head of Hamas' political bureau.

C. In the late 1980s, Sawalha served as a senior Hamas military operative in Judea and Samaria. After he was exposed, he fled (1990) to Jordan before settling in the UK. Sawalha met with an American Hamas agent in UK (1993) and gave him a list of names of operatives that he could activate, including Saleh al-Arouri. Al-Arouri today serves as Deputy Head of Hamas' Political Bureau and is a key figure in developing the ties between Hamas, Iran and Hezbollah. The U.S. State Department has placed, on November 13th, 2018, a $5 million reward for information regarding al-Arouri's whereabouts.²²²

INFORMATION THAT BRINGS TO JUSTICE

Khalil Yusif Harb
UP TO $5 MILLION REWARD
Khalil Yusif Harb is a close adviser to Secretary General Hassan Nasrallah, leader of the Lebanese Hizballah terrorist group, and has served as the group's chief military liaison to Iranian and Palestinian terrorist organizations. Harb has commanded and supervised the organization's military operations in the Palestinian territories and several countries throughout the Middle East.

Salih Al-Aruri
UP TO $5 MILLION REWARD
In October 2017, Salih Al-Aruri, one of the founders of the Izzedine al-Qassam Brigades, Hamas's military wing, was elected deputy leader of the Hamas Political Bureau. Al-Aruri funds and directs Hamas military operations in the West Bank and has been linked to several terrorist attacks, hijackings, and kidnappings.

Haytham 'Ali Tabataba'i
UP TO $5 MILLION REWARD
Haytham 'Ali Tabataba'i is a key Lebanese Hizballah military leader who has commanded Hizballah's special forces in both Syria and Yemen. Tabataba'i's actions in Syria and Yemen are part of a larger Hizballah effort to provide training, material, and personnel in support of its destabilizing regional activities.

5. Support for Terrorism

- A. At the peak of the wave of Palestinian terror against Israel in the early 2000s, Sawalha praised and glorified suicide bombings against Israeli civilians (2001). His statements of support for suicide bombings were broadcast as part of a program on the Qatari Al-Jazeera channel: “A ceasefire means turning the Palestinian Intifada into a non-violent movement in the style of Ghandi... It is the Palestinian people’s right, while its lands are occupied, to fight using all means, including suicide bombings.”²²⁵
- B. At a demonstration in London, he glorified rocket launchings by Palestinian terrorist groups against Israeli civilians, stating: “We come to celebrate the defeat of ‘the unbeatable army’, which was defeated by the rockets of the Palestinian resistance.”²²⁶

Hamas operatives active in NGOs in the UK:

Zaher Birawi

Zaher Birawi (AKA Abu Khaled), who moved to the UK in the 1990s, has close ties to Hamas and worked for several pro-Palestinian NGOs, including the Palestinian Return Centre (PRC), an NGO tied to Hamas. Birawi is a member of the secretariat of the Popular Conference of Palestinians Abroad and a key activist in organizing flotillas to Gaza.

1. Place of Birth: Asira al-Shimaliya, Palestinian Authority

2. Year of Birth: 1961

3. Areas of Operation: UK

4. Activities:

- A. Birawi was involved in organizing and launching flotillas against Israel, including the infamous Mavi Marmara flotilla of 2010. In addition, Birawi was Lead Coordinator of the Global March to Jerusalem (2012) and Muhammad Sawalha's (see above) successor at the International Committee for Breaking the Siege of Gaza (ICBSG). In this framework, he served as coordinator and was in constant contact with flotilla organizers during their various stops on their way to Gaza in July and August of 2018.
- B. He heads the EuroPal Forum,²²⁷ and also serves as head of the BDS Committee established following the Istanbul Popular Conference of Palestinians Abroad (February 2017).²²⁸
- C. Birawi served as chairperson of the Palestinian Forum in UK (PFB), which was founded "for the Palestinian diaspora in UK". Today, PFB is led by Hafez al-Karmi – a Hamas Political Bureau member in 2008²²⁹ - and a signatory on an Islamic religious convention against normalization with the

1. In 2010, Israel's Minister of Defense designated Zaher Birawi as a member of an illegal association, the PRC, due to the organization's ties to the terrorist group Hamas. He served as the PRC's Chairman of the Board of Directors in the early 2000's. In our estimation Birawi is still affiliated with Hamas today.
2. Birawi declared the efforts of the Hamas-affiliated National Commission for Return and Breaking the Siege as complementary to the efforts of the International Committee for Breaking the Siege of Gaza.²³³ When Birawi was interviewed in 2017 by Youman Hamas - Felesteen, a Hamas newspaper, he stressed that the real objective of the flotillas is to damage Israel in the diplomatic and PR spheres.²³⁴
