

Tweede Kamer

DER STATEN-GENERAAL

European Central Bank
President Christine Lagarde
60640 Frankfurt am Main
Germany

Postbus 20018
2500 EA Den Haag

The Hague, 12 October 2022

Concerning: motion of the House of Representatives of the Netherlands to declare that the House of Representatives of the Netherlands considers the Transmission Protection Instrument to be contrary to the EU treaties

Dear Mrs President,

We would like to draw your attention to the motion Omtzigt and Heinen of 28 September 2022. The motion was passed by the House of Representatives of the Netherlands on 4 October 2022. In this motion, the House of Representatives of the Netherlands declares that it considers the Transmission Protection Instrument to be contrary to the EU treaties. A translated version of the motion is included as an annex to this letter.

Yours sincerely,

Vera Bergkamp
President of the House of Representatives of the Netherlands

Session year 2022-2023

21 501-07

Economic and Financial Affairs Council

No. 1893

MOTION PUT FORWARD BY MESSRS OMTZIGT AND HEINEN MP

Proposed on 28 September 2022

The House,

having heard the deliberations,

declares that the House considers the Transmission Protection Instrument to be contrary to the EU treaties;

resolves to formally inform the Eurogroup and the European Central Bank of this position, and proceeds to the order of the day.

Omtzigt
Heinen