Concerning: motion of the House of Representatives of the Netherlands to declare that the House of Representatives of the Netherlands considers the Transmission Protection Instrument to be contrary to the EU treaties

Dear Mrs President,

We would like to draw your attention to the motion Omtzigt and Heinen of 28 September 2022. The motion was passed by the House of Representatives of the Netherlands on 4 October 2022. In this motion, the House of Representatives of the Netherlands declares that it considers the Transmission Protection Instrument to be contrary to the EU treaties. A translated version of the motion is included as an annex to this letter.

Yours sincerely,

Vera Bergkamp
President of the House of Representatives of the Netherlands
